

SANSKRIT FOR ALL

Sanskrit promotes National Integration, it has to spread across all sections of the society.

Sanskrit For All, a Chennai-based not-for-profit organisation, conducted a Students Awards Function on 1st February 2026 at Mahalakshmi Hall, RA Puram. Please find below the highlights of the Program.

Shri. Ganesh Parthasarathy

- Vishnu Sahasranamam is vast with deep spiritual meaning contained in its sacred verses.
- Great poets like Abirami Bhattar and Kalidasa have highlighted the beauty, depth, and power of Sanskrit literature.
- Chanting the holy name “Rama” gives spiritual benefits equal to reciting the Vishnu Sahasranamam.
- According to Chandrashekarendra Saraswati, Both Sanskrit and Tamil share deep roots connected to the ancient Vedic tradition.
- Let us all come together to support “Sanskrit for All,” just as devotees unite to pull the rope of a temple chariot—with unity and devotion!

Shri. Venkateshwaran

- Sanskrit despite modern attractions like sports and entertainment, showing their dedication to preserving ancient knowledge.
- Sanskrit a precious cultural treasure and appreciate the efforts of Venkatagiri in protecting it and passing it on to future generations.
- India was once very wealthy in history and often became a target for invaders, which resulted in both material loss and cultural decline.
- The mind must control the body, and through discipline and hard work, one can achieve true success.
- Devotion to Vishnu or Shiva ultimately reaches the same Divine source, and this spiritual wisdom is one reason Sanskrit is respected around the world.

Malathi Bg

Shri. Srinivasan

- Sanskrit has global recognition and is studied in many countries around the world, including universities in Germany and Pakistan.
- Sanskrit has a highly structured grammar, which provides a strong foundation for learning other languages more easily.
- Learning Sanskrit helps children develop clear pronunciation and phonetic accuracy, improving their speech in all languages.
- Teaching Sanskrit at a young age improves students' concentration, discipline, and academic focus.
- The vision of "Sanskrit for All," where parents and children learn together, creating an inclusive learning environment and strengthening cultural awareness.

Shri. V.Chandrasekaran

- Sanskrit promotes unity among Hindus and strengthens the cultural identity of our nation, India.
- When Hindu society remains united, it creates a peaceful and secure environment for everyone in the country.
- Sanskrit as a nurturing mother — "Sanskrita Matha" — who lovingly guides and embraces all learners.
- Learning Sanskrit is like seeing only the tip of an iceberg, because the language has vast and infinite depth.
- Everyone is encouraged to learn Sanskrit with dedication to truly experience its richness and timeless wisdom.

Shri. D.V.Venkatagiri

- Sanskrit For All seeks to be as a bridge for National Integration, uniting people through a shared cultural identity.
- Early childhood learning and studying Sanskrit at a young age improves concentration and language skills.
- Sanskrit is a precious "Pokkisham" (treasure) to promote Bhakti (devotion) that must be preserved and passed to the next generation.
- Through the vision of "Sanskrit for All," Encourage parents and children to learn together and support the movement like a community pulling a temple chariot rope collectively.

We sincerely thank City Union Bank, Apex Solutions, Proven web Technology for the valuable support extended to the event.

Ishwarya Bg

Padma Bg

"Sanskrit For All" is a Chennai - based, registered not-for-profit organisation, working to promote the great language of Sanskrit, other languages and social harmony through its various programmes, across all sections of the society.

Sanskrit For All

Address : #595, Alagirisamy Salai, KK Nagar, Chennai 600078, Tamil Nadu, India

Phone: 044-48559743; 9790186633

Email: sanskritglobe@gmail.com / Website: www.sanskritforall.com